Divine Mercy Chaplet Novena: A nine day Novena which begins on Good Friday and continues through the Sunday after Easter. All are encouraged to take part in this special time of prayer. Jason Jano 279-0843

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion: Lay persons of the parish are chosen by the pastor to aid him in the distribution of Holy Communion. Training is available to any person properly formed and instructed in the faith. Contact Eileen Singel at 445-7810 for more information.

Funeral Choir Ministry: This group sings at all funeral masses. There is no practice, but this choir offers their service to comfort the bereaved families and friends of the deceased. It is a great way to participate in the corporal works of mercy. Sue Sube 442-6168

Greeters Ministry: The goal of the Greeter program is to make parishioners and guests feel welcome at St. Peter's Church by offering a friendly greeting and smile when they arrive for mass on Saturdays and Sundays. Kathy Murdy 442-1450

Lectors Ministry: The lector welcomes the congregation, reads a brief reflection on the scripture and announces church events and activities. During Mass, the lector proclaims the scripture readings, the psalms between the readings (in the absence of a psalmist) and announces the intentions for the prayer of the faithful. For more information contact Frank Kovak at 445-5020.

Music Ministry: The choir is open to all and new members are warmly welcomed. We meet on Wednesday at 6:30 pm for rehearsal during the choir season (September through May). The choir sings primarily at 10am Mass on Sunday and it is an integral part of special liturgies. Instrumentalists are also welcome. Karen Kuhn 445-9382

Organist/Piano Ministry: This ministry provides music for weekend masses, holy days, funerals and weddings. Music suggestions and accompaniment books are provided. If you have ability please consider this ministry. We can train you. Lori Hogan 483-0164

Pro Life Rosary: This group meets the third Thursday of each month after the 7 am Mass and prays the 15 decade rosary to beg God to eliminate the hold the abortion mentality has over our nation. Janice Schrift 443-3087

Rosary Recitation Ministry: Rosary volunteers are scheduled to lead the congregation in praying the rosary before weekend masses. Debbie DiLoreto 445-2432

Usher Ministry: This important ministry finds Ushers assisting parishioners with seating, taking up the collection, and providing general assistance at Mass.
